

Safe Routes Idaho Convening

Idaho Smart Growth is hosting a half day convening on the afternoon of Wednesday May 16, 12:00 NOON for Safe Routes to School (SRTS) Coordinators and people interested in working on SRTS in their schools. This training, Safe Routes Idaho, is designed to allow people who are involved in SRTS programs around the state to learn together and share information with each other. Our goal is to build a network of SRTS Coordinators in Idaho who support each other and share ideas and tools with the assistance and support of Idaho Smart Growth.

The convening will be held in Boise the first day of the Idaho Walk Bike Summit which kicks off the evening of May 16 and runs all day Thursday May 17 and half day on Friday May 18.

ISG has travel, per diem and registration support of up to $400 per person on a first come first serve basis for people if they are interested in attending. Please contact Elaine Clegg if you interested in the scholarship support.

The agenda will be as follows:

- 12:00 – Lunch (provided), networking
- 1:00 – Introductions
- 1:15 – Safe Routes Idaho presentation (ISG SRTS program report) – Elaine Clegg)
- 1:30 – Safe Routes to School best practices, policy and programming – National Safe Routes to School Partnership (invited)
- 2:30 – Break
- 2:45 – SRTS in Idaho – sharing by coordinators in three Idaho communities
- 3:30 – Facilitated discussion, improving and supporting SRTS in Idaho
